

This branch is closing – but your bank is always open

Our Axminster branch is closing

Branch closure feedback and alternative ways to bank.

Sharing branch closure feedback

We're now nearing the closure of the Axminster branch of Barclays. Our first booklet explained why the branch is closing, and gave information on other banking services that we hope will be convenient for you.

We do understand that the decision to close a branch affects different communities in different ways, so we've spoken to people in your community to listen to their concerns. We wanted to find out how your community, and particular groups within it, could be affected when the branch closes, and what we could do to help people through the transition from using the branch with alternative ways to carry out their banking requirements.

We contacted the following groups:

MP:

Neil Parish

Local Council

Cllr. Ian Hall

Customers

A number of customers who regularly use the branch

We asked all of the groups to answer three questions. You'll find their responses below.

In your opinion, what's the biggest effect that this branch closing will have on your local community?

You said to us:

The closure of the branch means that there will be fewer banks in the town, which lessens the convenience for residents.

We'd like to say

We understand the concern from the community, and we have looked carefully at how this branch is used. Many customers already also use nearby branches and online or telephone banking and we've seen a general fall in customers coming to the branch.

We are explaining to customers how they can do their everyday banking at the Post Office on West Street, which is very near. It's open between 9:00am and 5:30pm Monday to Friday and between 9:00am and 12:30pm on Saturdays. We're helping customers understand the transactions they can do there, and talking to customers about how they can do their banking from home too.

The closure does not mean that there will be fewer ATMs in the town, as Santander, Lloyds and Tesco have free to use ATMs and our branch did not offer this service.

What's the biggest effect that this branch closing will have on customers of the branch?

You said to us:

There are concerns about customers who may depend particularly on the branch – for example, elderly customers and people who may find it hard to travel. Because the branch does not have an ATM, it's been a routine for some of these customers to come into the branch for small amounts of cash.

We'd like to say

We're speaking directly with customers most likely to be affected by the closure and we're helping them with alternative ways to do their banking. We have made sure they're familiar with the Post Office arrangement, too, particularly for withdrawing cash.

For customers who are able to travel, our nearest branches are at Chard and Honiton.

What alternative ways to bank do you believe would help people adapt to the change?

You said to us:

Customers will need help if they are to adopt new banking methods.

We'd like to say

We've encouraged customers to use other ways to do their everyday banking, including Mobile and Online Banking – and Telephone Banking if they would prefer to speak to someone. We have spoken to customers in the branch about other ways to bank, including how to set up a regular payment and order cards and PINs. Support is also available through our telephony and website services.

Other things to help with the change...

At the Post Office customers can withdraw cash, pay in cash and check balances using a debit card and pin. Customers can also pay in cash using a pre-printed paying in slip at the Axminster West Street and Kilmington Post Offices, although it could take an extra two days to reach Barclays accounts using a paying in slip. Unfortunately this service is not currently available at the Millwey Rise Post Office.

Both business and personal customers can pay in cheques. You'll need:

1. a pre-printed paying-in slip. You'll find these in your cheque book, or you can order them at any branch
2. a paying-in envelope. We have extra stock in the Axminster branch, so please call in before the closure to pick some up. Otherwise, just call 0800 169 3091 for these, and we'll pop some in the post.
