This branch is closing –
but we’re still here to help

Our Totnes branch is closing on Friday 22 June 2018.

Branch closure feedback, and alternative ways to bank
Sharing branch closure feedback

We’re now nearing the closure of the Totnes branch of Barclays. Our first booklet explained why the branch is closing, and gave information on other banking services that we hope will be convenient for you.

We do understand that the decision to close a branch affects different communities in different ways, so we’ve spoken to people in your community to listen to their concerns. We wanted to find out how your community, and particular groups within it, could be affected when the branch closes, and what we could do to help people through the transition from using the branch with alternative ways to carry out their banking requirements.

There are still many ways to do your banking, including in person at another nearby branch, at your local Post Office or over the phone on 0345 7 345 345². You can also go online to barclays.co.uk/waystobank to learn about your other options. Read more about this on page 6.

If you still have any questions or concerns about these changes, now or in the future, then please feel free to get in touch with us by:

Speaking to us in any of our nearby branches

Contacting Michael Watts, your Community Banking Director for Cornwall & Devon.

We contacted the following groups:

MP:
Sarah Wollaston

Local Council:
Mayor of Totnes, Rosie Adams and a number local councillors

Local consumer groups:
Rev Steve Jones from St John’s Church

Customers:
A number of customers who regularly use the branch

We asked each of the groups 3 questions – here’s what they said:

In your opinion, what’s the biggest effect that this branch closing will have on your local community?

You said to us:
There are some concerns that the branch closure may have an impact on the local economy and it could affect the way the community can bank. There are also concerns that the loss of the cash machine could affect both residents and tourists.

We’d like to say:
We understand the concerns about the closure – and we’d like to reassure everyone that, before deciding to close, we looked very carefully at how the branch is used. We’ve seen a general fall in customers coming to this branch, and many customers already use nearby branches and online or telephone banking.

To keep a community focus and to ensure trade stays in the local area, everyday banking can be done at the Post Office in Totnes – it’s open 8am to 6pm on Mondays, from 8am to 5.30pm on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays, and from 8am to 1pm on Saturdays. We’ve been liaising with staff at the Post Office and we’re helping our customers understand which transactions they can do there, how to bank from home and offering them support through this transition.

There are cash machines nearby at Santander, Happy Apple and Lloyds – all are free of charge.
What’s the biggest effect that this branch closing will have on customers of the branch?

You said to us:
There were concerns about customers who depend on the branch – particularly the elderly and those who find it difficult to travel. There were also concerns about local business customers who rely on there being a branch in town, particularly for cash transactions.

We’d like to say:
We’re speaking individually to those customers who rely on the branch, and we’re helping them feel more confident with alternative ways to bank. This includes speaking to someone in person through telephone banking. We’ve also made sure customers are familiar with using their local Post Office, too.

We have also spoken to business customers who regularly use the branch and let them know about other ways to withdraw and pay in cash, including Barclays Collect, our cash collection service. We’ve also made sure they’re familiar with the services available at the Post Office.

We’ve have met with some of the parishioners of St John’s Church to help them understand the different banking options available to them.

For anyone who’s able to travel, the nearest branches are in Paignton and Torquay. However, we understand it’s not always convenient to travel, so we’ve been offering support from our Digital Eagles in our branch, to help customers adapt to new ways of banking – so they don’t have to come into a branch as often.

What alternative ways to bank do you believe would help people adapt to the change?

You said to us:
The closure means customers will need help getting used to new banking methods, particularly those who are concerned about banking online and may prefer dealing with someone face to face.

We’d like to say:
We’re encouraging customers to do their everyday banking in other ways, including mobile and online banking – and telephone banking for those who prefer to speak to someone.

For many customers, particularly those who prefer to bank face to face, the Post Office is there for them.

We’ve run ‘Tea and Teach’ events at the branch to explain to customers about other ways to bank, including how to set up regular payments, and how to use Pingit or Barclays Mobile Banking. We’ve shown customers how to order cards and PINs and we’re helping everyone remain vigilant against fraud. Support is also available through our telephone and online services.

Other things that could help

Banking at the Post Office is available to both personal and business customers – where they can withdraw and pay in cash, and check their balances using a debit card and PIN. Customers can also pay in cash using a pre-printed paying-in slip.

Cheques can be deposited at the Post Office – customers will need a pre-printed paying-in slip, along with a cheque deposit envelope.

• Cheque deposit envelopes – we have supplies of envelopes in the Totnes branch, so please visit us before it closes to pick some up. Otherwise, call us on 0800 169 3091* and we’ll pop some in the post

• Pre-printed paying-in slips – are at the back of a Barclays cheque book. They can also be ordered at any branch or by calling 0800 169 3091*

Please allow an extra 2 days for cheques or cash deposited using a pre-printed paying-in slip to reach your Barclays accounts.

*Lines are open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week
