

This branch is closing – but your bank is always open

Branch closure feedback and alternative ways to bank.

Sharing branch closure feedback

We're now nearing the closure of the Silverhill branch of Barclays. Our first booklet explained why the branch is closing, and gave information on other banking services that we hope will be convenient for you.

We do understand that the decision to close a branch affects different communities in different ways, so we've spoken to people in your community to listen to their concerns. We wanted to find out how your community, and particular groups within it, could be affected when the branch closes, and what we could do to help people through the transition from using the branch with alternative ways to carry out their banking requirements.

We contacted the following groups:

MP

Amber Rudd

Local Council

Cllr. Nigel Sinden
Cllr. Colin Fitzgerald
Cllr. Martin Clark

Local groups

Age UK East Sussex
Autism UK

Customers

A number of customers who regularly use the branch

We asked all of the groups to answer three questions. You'll find their responses below.

In your opinion, what's the biggest effect that this branch closing will have on your local community?

You said to us:

Some concerns were expressed on what might become of the property. There were also concerns for the staff at the branch, as they are part of the Silverhill community.

We'd like to say

We are able to reassure everyone that there will be no job losses as a result of this closure with staff being relocated to nearby branches and customers will still be able to see them. Once we have vacated the premises we will hand them over to our property agents and hope a suitable new use can be found for them soon.

We would like to reassure the community that many of our customers already also use nearby branches and online or telephone banking, and that we have looked carefully at branch usage before making our decision. We have seen a general fall in customers coming into the branch.

To retain a community focus and ensure trade remains in the local area, we are encouraging people to do their everyday banking at the Post Office, which is open between 5.30am to 10.30pm Monday to Sunday. We're also helping customers understand the transactions they can do there. We're talking to customers about how they can do their banking from home too.

Silverhill remains well-served with cash machines. The three nearest free ATMs are at Lloyds, Tesco and Asda, with two of these being less than 100 metres away.

What's the biggest effect that this branch closing will have on customers of the branch?

You said to us:

There are concerns about customers who may depend particularly on the branch – for example, elderly customers and people who may find it hard to travel.

We'd like to say

We're speaking directly with customers most likely to be affected by the closure and we're helping them with alternative ways to do their banking. This includes telephone banking to speak to someone in person. We are ensuring they're familiar with the banking they can do at any Post Office, as many customers were unaware that banking transactions can be carried out there.

For customers who are able to travel, the nearest branches are at Hastings and Bexhill. Many customers are happy to use the Hastings branch where they will see familiar staff: Hastings branch has held orientation sessions for customers moving over. However, we understand it's not always convenient to travel, so we've been offering support from our Digital Eagles to help customers adapt to new ways of banking that mean they don't have to come into the branch so often.

What alternative ways to bank do you believe would help people adapt to the change?

You said to us:

Customers will need help if they are to adopt new banking methods.

We'd like to say

We've encouraged customers to use other ways to do their everyday banking, including Mobile and Online Banking – and Telephone Banking if they would prefer to speak to someone. We have run 'Tea and Teach' events at the branch to show customers other ways to bank, as well as how to set up a regular payment and order cards and PINs. Support is also available through our telephony and website services.

Other things to help with the change...

At the Post Office customers can withdraw cash, pay in cash and check balances using a debit card and pin. Customers can also pay in cash using a pre-printed paying in slip, although it could take an extra two days to reach Barclays accounts using a paying in slip.

Both business and personal customers can pay in cheques. You'll need:

1. a pre-printed paying-in slip. You'll find these in your cheque book, or you can order them at any branch
2. a paying-in envelope. We have extra stock in the Silverhill branch, so please call in before the closure to pick some up. Otherwise, just call 0800 169 3091 for these, and we'll pop some in the post.
