Sanctions

Sanctions are restrictions on activity with targeted countries, governments, entities, individuals and industries that are imposed by bodies such as the United Nations (UN), the European Union (EU), individual countries or groups of countries. The Barclays Group Financial Crime Policy is designed to ensure that the Group complies with applicable sanctions laws in every jurisdiction in which it operates.