

Tax compliance – International Exchange of Information agreement

Individual Self-Certification Form

Tax regulations<sup>1</sup> require the collection of certain information about each account holder's tax residency and citizenship status.

This form is designed to capture the citizenship and residency for tax purposes of the person entitled to the income and assets associated with an account (the beneficial owner). Should you be completing this form on behalf of the beneficial owner, you should complete the form using information relating to their citizenship and residence for tax purposes rather than your own.

Special circumstances (such as studying abroad, working overseas, or extended travel) may cause you to be resident elsewhere or resident in more than one country at the same time (dual residency).

Please complete, where applicable, the sections below in relation to all relevant accounts and provide any additional information as may be required. Please be advised that in certain circumstances we may be required to share this information with relevant tax authorities. This form is intended to request information only where such request is not prohibited by local law.

For joint or multiple account holders, please use a separate form for each individual person.

If you are a US citizen or resident of the US for tax purposes under US Internal Revenue Service ('IRS') regulations you should also provide a completed, signed and dated IRS Form W-9.

Do not use this form if you are an entity, nominee or other intermediary. Instead you should complete and provide the appropriate Self-Certification form.

If you have any questions about how to complete this form, please contact your tax adviser.

Part 2 – Tax Residency/Citizenship Information (continue on a separate sheet if necessary)

For the purposes of taxation, I am a resident in the following countries and my Tax Identification Number (TIN)/functional equivalent in each additional country is set out below or I have indicated that a TIN/functional equivalent is unavailable:

- Please note that it is mandatory to supply a TIN or functional equivalent if the country in which you are tax resident issues such identifiers. If no TIN is available or has not yet been issued, please provide an explanation for this in the relevant box overleaf
- The TIN is a combination of letters and/or numbers assigned to the individual by their country of residence (or its tax authorities) to identify the individual in the course of collecting taxes
- In some countries this may be a number that is specifically referred to as a TIN while other countries may use other numbers (eg: National Insurance Number or Social Security Number) to identify their residents for tax purposes.
